

91 Wickham St, Brighton

OUTSTANDING AND SO MUCH TO OFFER!

This 3 bedroom post war classic sits on a 602sqm corner allotment which is well positioned to capture our cooling bay breezes. Established gardens and Australian native flora surround this well maintained property which is move in ready, however, there is still option to add your own personal cosmetic touches to make this house your home.

The living area and two of the three king sized bedrooms have reverse cycle air conditioning units and carpet is currently covering timber floor boards which could be polished up to shine.

The kitchen is well appointed with a bank of windows bathing the room in light. Recent upgrades include new bench tops and brightly coloured door fronts to add interest with plenty of built in storage and stainless steel induction electric oven.

The dining area off the kitchen has its own built in storage reminiscent of a bygone era where there's a place for everything and everything in its place.

Further features include:

- * Skylight to filter extra light into the already bright home
