

51 Alexandra St, Sandgate

HIGH ON THE HILL - Views all around

Ideally located to take in views in all directions this one gives you plenty of potential to make your mark on the Sandgate landscape. Spectacular City views are on offer from your front door and from the rear deck you capture views of Bramble Bay across to Woody Point. If nothing else it means wherever the wind is blowing in from, it will be flowing through the house.

The house itself is a 1920's Queenslander at its bare bones. It was shifted to the block and over time has had various alterations done, but the quintessential essence of the true Queenslander is still there as the base of your canvas. Let your imagination take over and transform this one into a stylish timeless piece of Sandgate real estate. The rewards will be worth the time and effort, don't worry about costs, time says the local market continues to thrive and prosper.

The home features include:

- VJ walls and ceilings complimented by hoop pine floorboards (some are hidden);
- Three bedrooms and single bathroom, laundry and second toilet upstairs;
- Open plan lounge, front sunroom entry and kitchen all with air conditioning;
- High ceilings feature throughout and 1920's features still evident;
- Large covered deck at the rear, adjoins the kitchen for convenience;
- Enclosed area under the house presents plenty of opportunity to maximise functionality;
